BRANCH 4. CLEVELAND By Joan Miller-Malue

Our next monthly meeting will be held on Monday, June 15th. We will have a light supper before the meeting. The supper will be served at 6:15 pm. This will be the last meeting before summer break. We hope to see you there.

On a sad note, we report the death of Sister Sara Ordosch who died on Saturday, May 23, 2015 at the age of 97. Sara had been a faithful member of Branch 4 for over 62 years. She was a member of the Saxonia for many years. Sara had donated many hours of work at the Sachsenheim and she was a supporter of all our events. She loved coming to the Sachsenheim but unfortunately the last few years she was unable to attend our various events. She was preceded in death by her husband Martin, Sr. We extended our sincerest sympathy to her son Martin, Jr and wife Helen, grandchildren John Ordosch and Heidi Vanyo and five great-grandchildren. I have known Mrs. Ordosch since I was a young child, I loved to go by her house and see all her beautiful flowers. I will always remember the time she let me flavor the sausage at one of the Sachsenheim's sausage sales. I was terrified and she said "I know you will do a good job" as she sat watching me. I felt honored that she had confidence in me and was sure happy when I knew that the sausage tasted great. She was a special friend to many people throughout her lifetime. We are grateful to have had her as a member of our fraternal family for the past 62 years.

On a happier note, we want to extend belated birthday wishes to our Sister Paula Martin who turned 98 years old on May 6th. Paula has been a member of Branch 4 since 1934. She was active in the Juniors Organization in her younger days and her father, Daniel Rehner, was involved with promoting youth activities locally and on the national level. Paula enjoyed being a member of the Cleveland Seniors. We hope that Paula had a very special day!

Summer activities are coming up fast. A reminder for our junior members, that the ATS is holding Saxon Summer Camp at Camp Frederick the week of July 19th. Reservations must be made by June 10th. The Saxon Heimmattag is in Aylmer, Ontario Canada the weekend of July 10 – 12; ATS Golf Outing will be held in Salem, Ohio on August 8th and the Sachsenheim's Oktoberfest will be held on Saturday, August 29th. The International Sachsen Jugendlager will be in the Cleveland area July 16 – 20.

We extend congratulations to all our high school and college graduates. We are confident that you will continue with your even more successes and look forward to seeing what your bright futures have in store for you. Good luck in your next adventure!

BRANCH 27, NEW CASTLE By Dolores Both

Marie Benedict, president, welcomed Branch 27 members to our well attended dinner meeting on May 7 at Four Brothers Bistro. We all enjoyed our delicious dinners and then proceeded to our business meeting. Marie wished everyone a happy Mother's Day and conducted a moment of silence for those mothers who have passed away. Officers' reports were read and approved.

Get well wishes go out to Elisabeth Paal, Rose Badertscher, Rosemary Fleckenstine and Dee LeComte. It was nice to have Katie Genao join us for an enjoyable evening.

The next meeting will be Friday, June 5, at the club at 7:00 pm. The members unanimously agreed to support the remodeling of the ladies restroom. We will need to obtain more information before we proceed with funding the project.

Marie Benedict and Jean Kaba attended the Presidents Meeting in Youngstown. It was suggested Jean Kaba and Dolores Both get information on a day trip for the next meeting.

Gertrude Tizak's 87th birthday was coming up in a few days, so we surprised her with a bouquet of yellow roses, a cupcake with a candle and singing Happy Birthday to her. Happy Birthday wishes and a cupcake with a candle in it also went out to Marie Benedict who will be celebrating her birthday this month too. However, Marie's got quite a way to go to catch up with Gertrude!

Dolores Both read a Mother's Day poem. Beautifully potted pansy centerpieces created by Jean Kaba were raffled off to 8 lucky members.

Join us at our next meeting at the club on Friday, June 5, at 7 pm. After the meeting, we will have a strawberry festival at our social hour.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

By Thomas J. Manning
ATS Nat'l President

On Saturday, May 16th, the Presidents Meeting was held at the Saxon Club in Youngstown, Ohio. This meeting is held in the years when we do not have a National Convention and serves the purpose of informing our Branch Presidents of the ATS business affairs of the previous year. A 2014 Annual Financial and Activity Report was given along with Cultural and Youth Activities. Many awards were presented. ATS College Scholarship Award recipients were announced for both Freshmen and Continuing Education. A total of $30,000 in Scholarships was awarded. We congratulate all of the students who received these awards and wish them much success as they work toward their degrees. Branch Sharing checks were given to the local branches and Jim Mauch from Branch 30 in Youngstown, Ohio, was given an award for Highest Sales in Insurance and Annuities. We congratulate him for his efforts. Four newly elected Branch Presidents were given their Presidents' Pins. They were Martin Schuller, Cleveland, Ohio, Branch 1, Ned Jones, Lorain, Ohio, Branch 5, Florence Spack, Salem, Ohio, Branch 18, and John McCormick, New Castle, PA, Branch 25. We wish them much success in leading their branch. All of the Branch Presidents were asked to report to their members the topics that were presented and our need for an increase in Life Insurance Sales. We thank everyone who attended this meeting.

During the month of June, we have two important dates. Flag Day, June 14th, is a day to remember that our flag represents our freedom. Be sure to fly your flag on that special day. Fathers Day is June 21st. This day celebrates fatherhood and male parenting. It also is a day to honor and commemorate our fathers and forefathers. Be sure to honor your father on this special day.

Quote of the day: "To enjoy freedom we have to control ourselves." Freedom is easily lost. We want to be free, but we also want to be safe, and sometimes the two don't seem compatible. The wilder we are in our freedom, the less safe others may feel--which can lead to restrictions and leave us less free. We live this odd irony; To be free, we have to be careful not to be too free.

Take care until next time and may God bless the members of the ATS.

YOUNGSTOWN SAXON RETIREES

By Teri Laret

The following are the minutes from the Saxon Retirees monthly luncheon and meeting held on Thursday May 14 at 710 South Meridian Road, Youngstown Ohio.

As usual – a bit of humor – poor Murphy must have been quite a guy. His life style brings a smile on all our faces. This time it is about his favorite misplaced cap.

Now we will pray to God in thanksgiving for our many blessings and, oh yes, oh Lord for Murphy and his lost cap. Bless us oh Lord, for these thy gifts already received and the gifts to us from today, until we meet again in June.

Hostesses for today are Marge Teutsch and Martha Konrad. Our members are dedicated and selected a menu rated a Number Ten, and today is no exception. Besides, every table is decorated with a pot of miniature carnations. We all have a chance to go home with a possey. I hope that I am one of those someones.

Meeting comes to order. The secretary, Teri Laret, and treasurer, Joan Giba, read the discussions of previous meetings and the financial status of our organization. Lucy Secka made a motion, and seconded by Eileen Anerino to accept the reports as read. Motion passed. Incidentally, if any of the members have questions concerning the history or status of the Saxon Retirees, our books are always open for review.

Jim Raymond – we talk about you every month. Lucy keeps us up to date as to your recovery. Jim, keep up the good work.

Today we celebrate Lucy's May birthday as we sing "Happy Birthday" and many more.

Welcome home to Lisa and Richard Scott. It's been a while now, but you know you've not changed a bit. We're glad you picked up Hermine on your way here.

It's been approved to update the engraving to add names of our deceased members on the Saxon memorial plaque.

It's good that the Scotts and Hermine are back because they are the hostesses for June. If there is a change with your reservation, either by cancellation or adding another name to the list, please call one of the hostesses on or before Sunday, June 7th. Please remember the hostesses are to call "The Vindicator" (330-747-1471 ext 1282), Senior Society editor Barbara Schaeffer for info on or before 14 to 10 days before the meeting. Hostesses are Lisa and Richard Scott (330-539-6463) and Hermine (330-799-0456).

Your secretary is going to change her ancestry to Irish and not German. We had our monthly raffle. We had nine winners – 5 Irish and 4 German winners – that's 5 to 4.

That's all folks. So-ein-Tag.

BRANCH 2, ERIE

By Lee Wolfe

Our regular meeting was held Sunday, May 17, 2015 at 2:30 p.m. We held a moment of silence for deceased former member Nanciann Williams, and for Ronald DiSantis, Sr. son-in-law of members George and Mary Cook.

Please note that due to Fathers Day on June 21st, our next meeting will be held on Sunday, June 28th at 2:30 p.m.

We welcome new member Nikola L. Krahe, great grandson of Helen and Sal Frontino, who by the way, celebrated their 17th anniversary on May 12th.

President Manning attended the Presidents Meeting which is like a mini convention. They have discussions as to what is happening in their branches, as well as presentation of financial reports. Each branch president received a Branch Sharing Check, which is to be used only for branch activities. Also, every ATS member will receive a financial report of the ATS.

The ATS Open Bowling Tournament will be held on October 17-18 in Youngstown. The paperwork, however, will be handled by the New Castle branch. The ATS Golf Tournament will be held in Salem on August 8th. Applications for these events will be in the Volksblatt.

President Manning was pleased to announce that member Sarah Hess is a recipient of an ATS scholarship. As Tom said, Sarah's grandparents, John and Mary Ann Hess are dancing in heaven at the news.

During some of our discussions, Liz Manning advised that it is a good idea to let a family member know if you have a policy or annuity and where the documents are kept. It has happened when an heir discovered documents while cleaning the deceased's residence.

We are proud of our member, Joe Marshall, who was honored recently for his service as Chief of Police in Millcreek. All of us who know Joe can say he is a true gentleman and a great guy.

Wow!!! It appears that our young members did very well in the Bowl Where You Are Tournament. In fact, we had a winner in every age division, namely Danny Cornell-Klinek, Age 6-7 Division; Owen Gavio, Age 8-9 Division; Skyler Sutton Age 10-11 Division; Joe Van De Merwe, Age 10-11 Division; Lauren Haibach Age 14-15 Division; Tyler Van de Merwe Age 14-15 Division; and Madison Swift Age 16-17 Division. Nice going, all of you. We are all proud of you – Congratulations!

George Cook won the Club's Dinner Gift Certificate.

A very Happy Anniversary to all of our June couples: John and Elaine Crandall, 30 years; Ron and Bonnie Bathelms, 36 years; Robert and Patricia Markham, 50 years; Bill and Barbara Barthelms, 40 years; and Edward and Sue Goellner, 52 years.

Wishing all of the above a lovely, happy day.

See you at the June meeting. Take care everyone, and enjoy the sunshine.

Amazon nut brings new, great, expensive face oil

The natives of southern Columbia usually fed cacay nuts to their livestock or used them to treat wounds, and chopped down the trees for firewood.

That was before cosmetic companies discovered that beauty conscious big spenders would pay for what the yellowish oil from the protein-rich nut could do for their skin.

Now the cacay (pronounced Kahk-ai) is a hot commodity and the key ingredient in facial creams that can bring $200 an ounce at beauty counters in Los Angeles and London.

According to Bloomberg Businessweek, most nuts come from wild trees in remote areas, but new plantations are popping up in impoverished parts of Columbia. One farmer sold his cows to buy 120 saplings. Only a few are old enough to produce nuts his year, so he's scavenging every kernel from two old trees on his farm in Puerto Rico, Columbia, southwest of Bogota. The farmer says he won't let even one nut go to waste.

The nut's many virtues have long been known, but the cacay boom is in part the work of Albert Jaramillo, chief executive officer of Kakha, a company formed to develop products from Colombia's plant life. He arranged a trial study of the oil's use in skin care.

Sales of face oils are rising, sparking new products from L'Oreal and Proctor and Gamble's Olay brand, which are made of everything from grape and apricot seeds to lavender.

Some companies are holding off on using cacay because there isn't enough of it yet to create a stable supply.

BRANCH 8, ALLIANCE By Shari Edwards

We held our May meeting on May 20, 2015. There were 13 members present.

Our hostesses for the meeting were Denise and Casey Crawford and Helen Aeiling.

Helen explained to us about Branch sharing and a discussion followed.

A motion was made to make a donation to the Alliance YWCA for school supplies. Branch #3 Alliance will match our donation. A letter was read from the Alliance YWCA thanking us for all we do for them.

Our last meeting was on May 13th; and for the past 2 months, we have started a new tradition before meetings. We have always started with a prayer (Bette Schmidt always does such a great job finding the appropriate words), then the Pledge of Allegiance. Now we have added singing "Siebenbuergen"; what a great song to learn and so appropriate to start our meetings by adding some Saxon Culture.

Prior to the business meeting, we had a guest who spoke to us about domestic violence; quite enlightening. And unfortunately, a very disturbing problem. We made monetary, as well as general staple, donations to the Women's Shelter.

We were so glad to see Clara Weber back in circulation. We talked our shut-ins, including Dorothy Kump, John Leonhardt (who turned 90), Ronnie Maurer, and Charles Keefer who is in the hospital.

Our membership banquet was May 4th. Attendance was fair. We enjoyed dinner at Pine Ridge Country Club, and wonderful music provided by Eric Noltcamper. Hope everyone had a great time!

High School seniors and university students who are members of our branch, look for the Branch 33 Scholarship application that has been printed in the past few editions of the Volksblatt. We would love to help you with your education, but we will not be seeking you out... the application request needs to be sent to us, through Karyn Schmidt.

Congratulations to our Branch bowlers! Team #3: Diane Hum, Barb Hum, Ema Litschel, and Mike Bretz, took 1st place for the regular season. I did not attend the end of season tournament, but we heard Ema Litschel did wonderful bowling and took 1st place in the Woman's Single's Event. We plan on having 3 teams again come fall, and Mike and Diane plan on attending the Bowling Convention in June. Our President, Ema, will be attending the ATS Presidents Meeting this month.

The next events to plan

We voted to take a "Vacation" from meeting in June, July and Aug, 2015.

Our Ladies Branch will celebrate 110 years on June 17, 2015 at the Hart Mansion. Dinner time will be 6:00 pm. Hope to see everyone there.

Then to top off the summer, the men and women will meet to have a steak fry at the American Legion in Alliance on August 8, at Noon. This will be catered so no one from the lodge will have to do the cooking. Just show up and have a GREAT time.

BRANCH 33, CLEVELAND EAST By Arline Krestel-Suts

for: First is the Lake County Captains' Baseball Game on Saturday June 27th, game starts at 7pm. We have the Party Deck and a picnic meal. Bring the kids!! It's a wonderful venue and really fun! Barb Hum is taking reservations. Or call me, or any officer and we will be sure to help you get in touch with Barb.

Our annual Summer picnic is scheduled for Sunday, August 9th. This is a great time for everyone to get together and Penitentiary Glen is lots of fun for the kids too. We have games and great food!

Our next meeting is June 10th, (second Wednesday of the month), at St. John's Lutheran Church in Highland Heights. There will be a party tray supper at 7pm before the meeting, and a special birthday surprise that Mike Thellmann is baking! And if his wife Maria is "helping" him, you don't want to miss the dessert! "Feed them and they will come". LOL

Branch 33 is amending a section of our Constitution. I mentioned this in my April Article. Please make note of the change that the attending members passed unanimously, the addition of the phrase '... or until he becomes an exempt member.' Therefore Page 1 of Branch 33 Constitution will now read:

Article III- Membership

Section 1. 'An applicant for membership in Branch 33 must be a National Alliance Member as an owner of an Alliance Life Insurance Certificate and/or an Annuity Savings plan. He must retain either one throughout his membership, OR until he becomes an exempt member.' "

BRANCH 11, LORAIN By Monica Gilles

Your Horoscope

June 2015

ARIES: If you're paired with another Aries on a project, watch out. As natural leaders, you might not listen to each other. When you do, success is pretty much guaranteed.

TAURUS: Though co-workers look to you to discuss various situations, taking a low-key stance is the best course when you need to concentrate on your own work.

GEMINI: Consider giving your boss a little slack. He or she is not always right, but you're not always right either. Let it go for now. Talk about it some other time.

CANCER: June 21 is Father's Day. Dads are just as proud as Mothers are when they get a nice greeting card. Pick one he can display at home or in the office.

LEO: It's time to get outdoors for some fun and fitness. Calculate how long it's been since you had a checkup. A little problem could grow into a bigger one if not treated.

VIRGO: Work is important, but vacations are too. Contrary to what you think, the work can be handled without you. You'll be more energetic and creative when you get back.

LIBRA: Ah, "Lucky Libra," your personal life is running smoothly and you're feeling good about it. Don't be complacent. Your partner still needs some special attention.

SCORPION: Has spring fever caught up with you? Check your work and your status now. Don't let your meticulous attention to detail slide away from you.

SAGITTARIUS: Remember that your appearance and attitude are reflections of your energy. It's a good plan to dress for the job you want rather than for the one you have.

CAPRICORN: Focus on any issues arising with an associate or co-worker. Your conversations could iron out any differences and help you make better decisions.

AQUARIUS: Try to put an Aquarian on your team. You both have imagination, creativity, and drive. Not only that, but you can do what's needed to turn ideas into realities.

PISCES: This is a time to gather facts and process them. Anything done too hastily could backfire and have to be re-done at a later date. You are better off playing it cool.

Better entertainment means less foot space

Airlines are upgrading more planes with personal in-flight entertainment systems. The systems include screens and the boxes used to control them.

The 16.25-inch by 10.2-inch boxes are usually placed under aisle seats or window seats in front of a passenger, taking up about 20 percent of the under-seat space on Boeing 737s.

SeatGuru, which tracks airline seating, says skinny seats and fat boxes really impact a passenger's overall comfort, especially on long-haul flights.

One passenger, quoted by SeatGuru, says in seat 10D of an American Boeing 737-800, he couldn't get his messenger bag under the seat with room left for his feet. Another passenger says the boxes make it impossible for both feet to fit under the seat in front of you.

The in-flight entertainment systems have many great features, including a selection of more than 250 movies.

International Picnic Day is June 18. Let's celebrate! Five-Ingredient Barbecue Pork

With the arrival of the first day of summer on June 21, you're eager to spend as much time outdoors as possible, and what better way to celebrate this special weekend of red-banner events than on a picnic with friends and family. And what fun to know that people worldwide are also picnicking.

Although the rattan picnic basket may be a thing of the past, fabulous food isn't. Depending upon your location, environment and culture, your favorite outdoor fare may vary from lobster rolls to sushi or the standard burgers, fried chicken or hotdogs. A picnic is about indulgence and delight.

But it can be 'healthier.' After eating, you can bike, hike, stroll or bring out the Frisbee, kites, or softballs to burn off extra calories.

Barbecue is not only a Southern choice for any day, this recipe is trouble-free, easy on the pocketbook, and perfect for the official arrival of summer. Five ingredients and five minutes of preparation. That's it. Let your slow-cooker do the work.

Five-Ingredient Barbecue Pork

3 pounds of boneless pork loin
1 medium yellow onion, thinly sliced

3/4 cup root beer or cola
3/4 cup bottled barbecue sauce (Sweet Baby Ray's used in recipe)
8 sandwich/burger buns (or ciabatta rolls or slider potato rolls)

Combine first four ingredients in a slow-cooker. Cover and cook on high for 5 hours. Drain and slice, or shred pork with two forks.

Serve on buns with additional barbecue sauce (and crunchy slaw).

Even easier for the chef: Cook for 6-8 hours overnight on low for super tender meat. Drain liquid. Add more BBQ sauce after you shred meat. And, yes, you can use pork tenderloin on high temperature; cut into 2-3 hunks before cooking for shorter shred, or dice meat. Leave BBQ in the crock pot for travel to picnic site.

Don't forget, the art of picnicking involves relaxing, fun and camaraderie of kindred souls.

June is African-American Music Appreciation Month

Jazz, blues, country, choral or Disney classics, what is your favorite type of music? Each of these styles has benefited from the talents of black artists. Their passion for expressing the depth of their inner emotions through music has impacted the music of following generations.

W. C. Handy, an Alabama-born bandleader, composer and publisher, became known as the Father of the Blues. His first composition, "Memphis Blues," made history as the first commercially published blues song. Handy formed a music company, produced his next hit, "St. Louis Blues," and collaborated on the Hollywood movie of the same name.

Handy, the first artist to perform the blues in Carnegie Hall (1928), authored five books on black folk music, the blues, and early African-American composers. His Blues: An Anthology—Complete Words and Music of 53 Great Songs, is regarded as the first book to document and analyze the blues as not only a vital part of the South but of U.S. history.

Bessie Smith, a blues singer, whose recording "Down-Hearted Blues" was the first million-selling record by an African-American artist, recorded Handy's "St. Louis Blues" with Louis Armstrong and starred in the film with its name. She was the largest-selling recording artist of her day, influencing blues and jazz singers every decade since then.

William Grant Still, called dean of African-American composers, created and directed many works in high school, and studied at the Oberlin Conservatory. Although disciplined in classical music, he turned to ragtime, jazz, and blues.

He toured with Handy as the arranger of his many hits like "St. Louis Blues," which Bessie Smith recorded. He went on to make his own firsts as a black classical composer, eventually awarded six honorary doctorates from universities.

Are Your Children, Grandchildren, Nieces and Nephews Members of the Alliance of Transylvanian Saxons?

Let them benefit from our Fraternal Program And be a part of our History

Let your children take an active part in our fraternal program and enjoy the benefits of being a member. They will receive direct mail inviting them to participate in the various national youth activities. They will benefit from the local activities in their own Branch. They will be eligible for scholarships and other fraternal benefits that include child and orphan benefits. They will experience the importance of being a part of a group of people that care about their welfare. They will learn the meaning of caring for one another and sharing good times with family and friends.

Need a gift idea for a birthday or christening, why not think about a gift that will grow in value and last a lifetime! You can purchase an ATS Annuity for a child with as little as $150 as an initial deposit and can make additional deposits on a chosen mode or when you desire. Current Annual Interest Yield is 2.25%.

Or you can give them an ATS One Payment Life Plan. You simply make one payment for fully Paid-Up Whole Life Insurance. Use the tables below to see how inexpensive this gift can be:
